DIGITALLY TRANSFORMING TEACHERS

Our innovative blended training courses enable you to become a digitally transforming teacher by mastering these 21st century skills and digital competences:

- Integrating STEAM tools in different subject areas;
- Integrating the goals of sustainable development and the circular economy with digital tools;
- Developing digital pedagogies;
- Using digital tools in formal and non-formal learning environments;
- Using digital tools in entrepreneurship education;
- Digital teaching in distance and hybrid learning;
- Developing interactive digital learning materials;
- Using digital tools to support self-directed learning and learners with special needs.

Apply to online/F2F courses on July 18-22th 2022. In case you are interested in a tailor-made course involving only one or two of the aforementioned competences, please contact hik@tlu.ee.

For EdTech companies

We offer applied research for EdTech companies. Have a look at the augmented reality game that we created together with MobiLab, offering them our prototyping services. As we have a vast network of schools and kindergartens, we can also provide test beds for testing new educational solutions.

For universities

We are interested in partnering in Horizon Europe calls as a partner or a coordinator. We can offer our expertise in the field of innovative teaching and learning methods, lifelong and workplace learning, digital and green transformation etc.
